WELCOME

It is the policy of the Company to provide equal employment opportunities to all employees and employment applicants without regard to unlawful considerations of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, ancestry, physical or mental disability, genetic information, marital status or any other classification protected by applicable local, state or federal laws. This policy prohibits unlawful discrimination based on the perception that anyone has any of those characteristics, or is associated with a person who has or is perceived as having any of those characteristics. This policy applies to all aspects of employment, including, but not limited to, hiring, job assignment, working conditions, compensation, promotion, benefits, scheduling, training, discipline and termination.

The Company expects all employees to support our equal employment opportunity policy, and to take all steps necessary to maintain a workplace free from unlawful discrimination and harassment and to accommodate others in line with this policy to the fullest extent required by law. For example, the Company will make reasonable accommodations for employees' observance of religious holidays and practices unless the accommodation would cause an undue hardship on the Company's operations. If you desire a religious accommodation, you are required to make the request in writing to your manager as far in advance as possible. You are expected to strive to find co-workers who can assist in the accommodation (e.g. trade shifts) and cooperate with the Company in seeking and evaluating alternatives.

Moreover, in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Company provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities to the fullest extent required by law. The Company may require medical certification of both the disability and the need for accommodation. Keep in mind that the Company can only seek to accommodate the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual. Therefore, it is your responsibility to come forward if you are in need of an accommodation. The Company will engage in an interactive process with the employee to identify possible accommodations, if any will help the applicant or employee perform the job.

Who must complete Form IL-W-4?

If you are an employee, you must complete this form so your employer can withhold the correct amount of Illinois Income Tax from your pay. The amount withheld from your pay depends, in part, on the number of allowances you claim on this form.

Even if you claimed exemption from withholding on your federal Form W-4, U.S. Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, because you do not expect to owe any federal income tax, you may be required to have Illinois Income Tax withheld from your pay (see Publication 130, Who is Required to Withhold Illinois Income Tax). If you are claiming exempt status from Illinois withholding, you must check the exempt status box on Form IL-W-4 and sign and date the certificate. Do not complete Lines 1 through 3.

If you are a resident of Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri, or Wisconsin, or a military spouse, see Form W-5-NR, Employees Statement of Nonresidence in Illinois, to determine if you are exempt.

Note If you do not file a completed Form IL-W-4 with your employer, if you fail to sign the form or to include all necessary information, or if you alter the form, your employer must withhold Illinois Income Tax on the entire amount of your compensation, without allowing any exemptions.

When must I file?

You must file Form IL-W-4 when Illinois Income Tax is required to be withheld from compensation that you receive as an employee. You should complete this form and give it to your employer on or before the date you start working for your employer. You may file a new Form IL-W-4 any time your withholding allowances increase. If the number of your previously claimed allowances decreases, you must file a new Form IL-W-4 within 10 days. However, the death of a spouse or a dependent does not affect your withholding allowances until the next tax year.

When does my Form IL-W-4 take effect?

If you do not already have a Form IL-W-4 on file with your employer, this form will be effective for the first payment of compensation made to you after this form is filed. If you already have a Form IL-W-4 on file with this employer, your employer may allow any change you file on this form to become effective immediately, but is not required by law to change your withholding until the first payment of compensation is made to you after the first day of the next calendar quarter (that is, January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1) that falls at least 30 days after the date you file the change with your employer.

Example: If you have a baby and file a new Form IL-W-4 with your employer to claim an additional exemption for the baby, your employer may immediately change the withholding for all future payments of compensation. However, if you file the new form on September 1, your employer does not have to change your withholding until the first payment of compensation is made to you after October 1. If you file the new form on September 2, your employer does not have to change your withholding until the first payment of compensation made to you after December 31.

How long is Form IL-W-4 valid?

Your Form IL-W-4 remains valid until a new form you have filed takes effect or until your employer is required by the department to disregard it. Your employer is required to disregard your Form IL-W-4 if you claim total exemption from Illinois Income Tax withholding, but you have not filed a federal Form W-4 claiming total exemption. Also, if the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has instructed your employer to disregard your federal Form W-4, your employer must also disregard your Form IL-W-4. Finally, if you claim 15 or more exemptions on your Form IL-W-4 without claiming at least the same number of exemptions on your federal Form W-4, and your employer is not required to refer your federal Form W-4 to the IRS for review, your employer must refer your Form IL-W-4 to the department for review. In that case, your Form IL-W-4 will be effective unless and until the department notifies your employer to disregard it.

What is an "exemption"?

An "exemption" is a dollar amount on which you do not have to pay Illinois Income Tax. Therefore, your employer will withhold Illinois Income Tax based on your compensation minus the exemptions to which you are entitled.

What is an "allowance"?

The dollar amount that is exempt from Illinois Income Tax is based on the number of allowances you claim on this form. As an employee, you receive one allowance unless you are claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return (e.g., your parents claim you as a dependent on their tax return). If you are married, you may claim additional allowances for your spouse and any dependents that you are entitled to claim for federal income tax purposes. You also will receive additional allowances if you or your spouse are age 65 or older, or if you or your spouse are legally blind.

How do I figure the correct number of allowances?

Complete the worksheet on the back of this page to figure the correct number of allowances you are entitled to claim. Give your completed Form IL-W-4 to your employer. Keep the worksheet for your records.

Note If you have more than one job or your spouse works, you should figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim. Your withholding usually will be more accurate if you claim all of your allowances on the Form IL-W-4 for the highest-paying job and claim zero on all of your other IL-W-4 forms.

What if I underpay my tax?

If the amount withheld from your compensation is not enough to cover your tax liability for the year, (e.g., you have non-wage income, such as interest or dividends), you may reduce the number of allowances or request that your employer withhold an additional amount from your pay. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax at the end of the year. If you do not have enough tax withheld from your pay, and you owe more than $500 tax at the end of the year, you may owe a late-payment penalty. You should either increase the amount you have withheld from your pay, or you must make estimated tax payments.

You may be assessed a late-payment penalty if your required estimated payments are not paid in full by the due dates.

Note You may still owe this penalty for an earlier quarter, even if you pay enough tax later to make up the underpayment from a previous quarter.

For additional information on penalties, see Publication 103, Uniform Penalties and Interest. Visit our website at tax.illinois.gov to obtain a copy.

Illinois Withholding Allowance Worksheet

General Information

Use this worksheet as a guide to figure your total withholding allowances you may enter on your Form IL-W-4.

Complete Step 1.

Complete Step 2 if

- you (or your spouse) are age 65 or older or legally blind, or
- you wrote an amount on Line 4 of the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet for federal Form W-4.

If you have more than one job or your spouse works, your withholding usually will be more accurate if you claim all of your allowances on the Form IL-W-4 for the highest-paying job and claim zero on all of your other IL-W-4 forms.

You may reduce the number of allowances or request that your employer withhold an additional amount from your pay, which may help avoid having too little tax withheld.

Step 1: Figure your basic personal allowances (including allowances for dependents)

Check all that apply:

- No one else can claim me as a dependent.
 I can claim my spouse as a dependent.

- 1 Enter the total number of boxes you checked. 1 _____
- 2 Enter the number of dependents (other than you or your spouse) you will claim on your tax return. 2 _____
- 3 Add Lines 1 and 2. Enter the result. This is the total number of basic personal allowances to which you are entitled. You are not required to claim these allowances. The number of basic personal allowances that you choose to claim will determine how much money is withheld from your pay. See Line 4 for more information. 3 _____
- 4 Enter the total number of basic personal allowances you choose to claim on this line and Line 1 of Form IL-W-4 below. This number may not exceed the amount on Line 3 above, however you can claim as few as zero. Entering lower numbers here will result in more money being withheld(deducted) from your pay. 4 _____

Step 2: Figure your additional allowances

Check all that apply:

- I am 65 or older. I am legally blind.
 My spouse is 65 or older. My spouse is legally blind.

- 5 Enter the total number of boxes you checked. 5 _____
- 6 Enter any amount that you reported on Line 4 of the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet for federal Form W-4 plus any additional Illinois subtractions or deductions. 6 _____
- 7 Divide Line 6 by 1,000. Round to the nearest whole number. Enter the result on Line 7. 7 _____
- 8 Add Lines 5 and 7. Enter the result. This is the total number of additional allowances to which you are entitled. You are not required to claim these allowances. The number of additional allowances that you choose to claim will determine how much money is withheld from your pay. 8 _____
- 9 Enter the total number of additional allowances you elect to claim on Line 2 of Form IL-W-4, below. This number may not exceed the amount on Line 8 above, however you can claim as few as zero. Entering lower numbers here will result in more money being withheld(deducted) from your pay. 9 _____

IMPORTANT: If you want to have additional amounts withheld from your pay, you may enter a dollar amount on Line 3 of Form IL-W-4 below. This amount will be deducted from your pay in addition to the amounts that are withheld as a result of the allowances you have claimed.

✂ ———— Cut here and give the certificate to your employer. Keep the top portion for your records. ———— ✂

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld . . . ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2022 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____
	Add the amounts above and enter the total here	3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$ _____

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2022 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2021 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2022. You had no federal income tax liability in 2021 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2021 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2022 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2023.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2022 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2022 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $25,900 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er), $19,400 if you're head of household, $12,950 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE POLICY SUMMARY

In a commitment to safeguard the health of our employees and to provide a safe working environment, we have established a Drug-Free Workplace Policy for our company. This policy is set up pursuant to the Drug-Free Workplace program requirements under applicable state laws and regulations and Department of Transportation Rule 49 CFR part 40, Procedures for Transportation Workplace Drug Testing. The contents of these drug and alcohol guidelines are presented as statements of the company's current policy and may be changed and updated by the company as required. These guidelines are not intended to create a contract between the company and any employee. Nothing in these guidelines binds the company to a specific or definite period of employment or to any specific policies, procedures, actions, rules, terms, or conditions of employment. Details of this policy may be obtained from management.

Essential Parts of the Policy:

- Observance of this policy is a condition of continued employment.
- This policy prohibits the sale, possession, use, manufacturing, or distribution of drugs, drug paraphernalia, or alcohol while working for or on company assigned or owned property, or while operating any vehicle, machinery, or equipment owned or leased by the company.
- It is a violation of this policy to report to work if drugs or alcohol is found to be present in your system at or above the level prescribed by application drug testing rules.
- It is a violation of this policy to report to work, return to work, or to remain at work with the odor of alcohol on your breath, regardless of whether or not you are actually intoxicated.

Testing of Employees:

- Reasonable Suspicion Testing: Employees may be tested when there is reasonable suspicion that the employee is using or has used drugs while performing their assigned duties.
- Routine fitness-for-duty testing: Employees may be required as a condition of continued employment to be drug tested if the test is conducted as part of a routine or annual fitness-for-duty medical examination.
- Post accident/incident testing: Employees who cause or contribute to an accident may be required to submit to a drug test. Employees, while at work, who sustain injuries requiring medical treatment beyond first aid may be drug tested.
- Follow up testing: Employees who have been determined to have used drugs or alcohol, and are retained by the company will be subject to unannounced follow-up drug tests at least once per year for a period of up to 2 years.
- Additional Testing: Additional testing, including random testing may also be conducted as required by applicable state or federal laws, rules or regulations, or as deemed necessary by the company.

Disciplinary Action:

- The company may suspend employees without pay under this policy pending the results of a drug test or investigation.
- In the case of a first-time violation of this policy, when an employee has a positive drug or alcohol test result, (without evidence of use, sale possession, distribution, dispensation, or purchase of drugs or alcohol on company property or while on duty), the employee will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.
- Any employee who has a second violation of any part of this policy will be discharged.
- Any employee using, selling, purchasing, distributing, or dispensing drugs or alcohol while on duty or while on company property will be discharged.
- An employee who refuses to submit to drug screening may be denied continued employment.
- An employee who refuses to cooperate with a drug screening post accident will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.
- An employee injured in a workplace accident who has a confirmed, positive test result may be denied eligibility for medical and indemnity benefits as provided by applicable workers' compensation laws.
- An employee who is discharged from duty on the basis of a confirmed positive test will have their claim for unemployment compensation benefits opposed and possibly denied.

Employee Rights and Responsibilities:

- Each employee will be given an opportunity, both before and after drug use screening, to confidentially report to the assigned Medical Review Officer the use of prescription and/or non-prescription medication that may alter or affect the results of a test.
- Employees have the right, upon written request, to receive a copy of the drug test result.
- Employees have the right to consult the Medical Review Officer (MRO) for technical information regarding prescription and non-prescription medication. Addresses of MRO's may be obtained from management.
- An employee who is using prescription and/or non-prescription medication which may impair the employee's ability to work safely must report this medication use to their supervisor or management before starting any work related activity. This notification will be kept strictly confidential, but failure to notify your supervisor or management may result in disciplinary action.
- All information, interviews, reports, statement memoranda, and drug test results, written or otherwise, received by the company as a part of this drug testing program are confidential communications. Unless authorized by state or federal laws, rules, or regulations, the company will not release such information without a written consent form signed voluntarily by the person tested.
- Any employee who receives a confirmed positive drug test result has the right to challenge the result.
- An employee who elects to challenge the results of a confirmed positive test result may have the original specimen retested by another qualified laboratory. All re-testing will be at the employee's expense.
- The employee has the responsibility of notifying the drug testing laboratory of any administrative or civil action brought concerning the drug test results. The lab will maintain a sample until the case of administrative appeal is settled.
- An Employee Assistant Plan/Substance Abuse Program list is available and will be provided upon request.
- The company will provide employees with a period of training regarding substance abuse and this Drug-Free Workplace Policy.

Acknowledgement Signature:

I hereby acknowledge that I have received and read a summary of the company's Drug-Free Workplace Policy. I have had an opportunity to have this material fully explained.

I understand that this substance abuse testing program is established as a safety requirement in accordance with applicable state regulations. The program involves routine testing of urine, hair, blood, or other authorized samples to determine the presence of illegal drugs. These tests may be conducted at anytime by the company or its agent(s) to determine that the employees meet the necessary qualifications for employment and continued employment. I also understand that the Drug-Free Workplace policy and related documents are not intended to constitute a contract between the company and myself.

My signature below indicates that I have read, understood, authorize, and consent to the above statement and any attached addendum and hereby voluntarily participate in the substance abuse testing program.

ANTI-HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The Company is committed to providing a work environment free of sexual or any form of unlawful harassment or discrimination. Harassment or unlawful discrimination against individuals on the basis of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, ancestry, physical or mental disability, genetic information, marital status or any other classification protected by local, state or federal laws is illegal and prohibited by Company policy. Such conduct by or towards any employee, contract worker, customer, vendor or anyone else who does business with the Company will not be tolerated. Any employee or contract worker who violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of his or her employment or engagement. To the extent a customer, vendor or other person with whom the Company does business engages in unlawful harassment or discrimination, the Company will take appropriate corrective action.

Prohibited Conduct:

Prohibited harassment or discrimination includes any verbal, physical or visual conduct based on sex, race, age, national origin, disability or any other legally protected basis if:

- a. submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or engagement;
- b. submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for decisions concerning that individual's employment or engagement; or
- c. it creates a hostile or offensive work environment.

Prohibited harassment includes (but is not limited to) unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and lewd, vulgar or obscene remarks, jokes, posters or cartoons, and any unwelcome touching, pinching or other physical contact. Other forms of unlawful harassment or discrimination may include racial epithets, slurs and derogatory remarks, stereotypes, jokes, posters or cartoons based on race, national origin, age, disability, marital status or other legally protected categories. Prohibited harassment might also be transmitted using the Company's electronic communications system, or through other on-line conduct.

Complaint Procedure:

Employees or contract workers who feel that they have been harassed or discriminated against, or who witness any harassment or discrimination by an employee, contract worker, customer, vendor or anyone else who does business with the Company, should immediately report such conduct to their supervisor or any other member of management.

Do not allow an inappropriate situation to continue by not reporting it, regardless of who is creating the situation. No employee, contract worker, customer, vendor or other person who does business with this organization is exempt from the prohibitions in this policy. In response to every complaint, the Company will conduct an investigation which may involve interviewing witnesses if warranted and, if improper conduct is found, take appropriate corrective action.

To the extent that an employee or contract worker is not satisfied with the Company's handling of a harassment or discrimination complaint, he or she may also contact the appropriate state or federal enforcement agency for legal relief.

Acknowledgement Signature:

I understand that the Company will not tolerate sexual and other forms of unlawful harassment. I understand that I have the affirmative obligation to report it. I also understand that unlawful harassment is grounds for disciplinary action up to and including immediate discharge.

SAFETY GUIDELINES

The Company is committed to providing a safe workplace. Accordingly, the Company emphasizes "safety first." It is the employee's responsibility to take steps to promote safety in the workplace and work in a safe manner. By remaining safety conscious, employees can protect themselves and their coworkers. Employees are expected to promptly report all unsafe working conditions, accidents, and injuries, regardless of how minor so that any potential hazards can be corrected.

GENERAL SAFETY GUIDELINES

1. It is important that all employees report all work-related injuries to their immediate supervisor as soon as possible after they become aware of the injury.
2. Everyone should exercise extreme care and consideration in the performance of their duties to see they do not cause injury to others or create work hazards that could cause injury to others.
3. No one should try to lift or move heavy/bulky objects that could cause injury to the back or other body parts. You are requested to seek assistance.
4. Personal tools, equipment, extension cords, chemicals, or electrical heaters should not be brought to work without management authorization.
5. When you become aware of a facility or equipment defect, report it to the facilities manager for proper corrective action. Failure to report faulty conditions may result in injuries.
6. Never attempt to repair electrical equipment or appliances while in service. Tag them out of service and notify proper authority to affect repair.
7. Cabinets can be very dangerous if used improperly. Opening two drawers simultaneously can cause a cabinet to crash to the floor. Whenever possible, cabinets should be bolted together in tandem, secured to the floor or wall.
8. Flammable liquids should always be stored in appropriate, closed containers. Large supplies should be stored in UL-approved cabinets or other appropriate means described by the fire department. Flammable liquids should never be left unattended.
9. Heavy objects should be stored on lower shelves while lighter and less dangerous items can be stored on middle and upper shelves.
10. Bookshelves, storage cabinets, and other elevated storage areas should be well secured.
11. Defective furniture, worn carpet, defective chairs, loose handrails, or other facility defects which could contribute to an accident should be reported to building services for proper corrective action.
12. Everyone should take time to be educated regarding emergency procedures.

PROPER LIFTING TECHNIQUES

1. POSTURE: Your back and neck have natural curves that should be kept flexible. Good posture maintains those curves and reduces stress on your muscles, ligaments, and the shock-absorbing discs between the bones in your spine.
2. PLAN: Lift mentally first, planning your route and the place you will put down the load. When the load is heavy or bulky, get help. Ask a co-worker or use equipment to ease the task. (Mechanical lift, hand truck, cart, etc.)
3. LIFTING: Establish good footing as you approach the object you intend to lift. Bend your knees, not your back, and get a good grip. Plan to hold the object close to your body. Tighten your stomach as you lift. Lift smoothly with your legs, not your back.
4. MOVING: Stand straight as you move the object. Don't twist your body while lifting; rather, turn your feet. Keep your balance. If you have a problem, ask for help. Be sure of your footing and pathway.

I HAVE READ THOROUGHLY AND UNDERSTAND EMPLOYCO'S SAFE WORK PRACTICES DOCUMENT. I WILL ALWAYS MAINTAIN SAFE WORK PRACTICES AS OUTLINED WHILE REPRESENTING EMPLOYCO AND WILL REPORT AN INFRACTION TO MY SUPERVISOR IMMEDIATELY.
